

Lake Cypress Springs, Franklin County, TX

Purpose: Lake Cypress Springs is suffering from an excess of nutrients, which enables growth of a dense mat of vegetation that covers the water surface. Resulting problems include stagnant water which can no longer support the growth of fish and other aquatic life, and water quality issues including taste and odor problems. Further deterioration can be prevented by restoration of a “beneficial” native plant community.

Sponsor: Franklin County Water District

Congressional District: TX-4 Hall